

02:30 pm E1 Growing with your TT® Workbook (Barbara Stone)

This interactive session will introduce you to our educator, Barbara Stone, who will share how the workbook can enhance your TT® sessions. She will also identify the key aspects of recording that will provide you with the opportunity to become a Registered Practitioner once you have completed your worksheets.

or E2 Introductory sessions for RP's to begin teaching (Cherry Whitaker)

Always working to expand the experiences and the expertise of our network, the Education committee has prepared some mini workshops for RP's to present to help educate and promote TT® to their community. If you have been stuck for the right way to offer information about TT®, this will help with those explanations, and if you have thought about becoming an instructor for ATTN, Cherry Whitaker, our education chair, will create a new environment for that ambition to grow and expand.

09:00 am Expanding our Vision through Therapeutic Touch® (Cherry Whitaker)

Each of us and each of our Practice Groups have evolved throughout the years, beginning from our first awakening to the reality of having access to the "Field to change ours and others' lives". Exploring our own awakenings in TT® will assist us to envision and create our future in Therapeutic Touch® - Support our Visions to become our Realities.

10:00 am ATTN 2019 Exceptional Service Awards

10:15 am BREAK

10:30 am A1 Chakra Yoga and Meditation (Cara Coes)

Exploring the many facets of the yoga poses with an infusion of intention will provide an experiential opportunity for opening and releasing the physical and energy systems of the body. This gentle session will provide adaptations, and chairs if needed. Please bring a mat, blanket, block, firm pillow and eye pillow.

or A2 What does it mean to be WELL? (Carol Evans)

To be an effective partner in TT® treatments, it is important that we have a personal balance of Body, Mind and Spirit before assisting others. Our WELLness practice enhances how we can share TT with others. Carol will help us to find our balance and create a triangle of health going forward. Please wear comfortable clothing.

12:00 pm LUNCH BREAK

02:00 pm B1 Weaving My memories of Dora in Stories of Therapeutic Touch® (Barbara Cull Wilby)

Barbara had the joy of studying and learning the power of TT® with Dora. Her personal experiences and joy transformed the way she has shared TT® and provide instruction for others. This is a special session to learn more about Dora and her passion for helping others.

or B2 The Portal to Wellness that TT® provides us all (Colette and Marcel Thibodeau)

Explore the entanglement that happens when TT® becomes a way of life. Colette and Marcel will share their triumphs, passion and hardships as they felt the influence of TT® in their own personal care, the vitality and support for their clients, as well as how TT® influenced and connected with other modalities. You may see your own journey through new eyes after this session.

03:30 pm BREAK

03:45 pm C1 How Joy bubbles and other TT® tools have enhanced my work as a counsellor. (Tanya Levy)

Tanya has transformed her ability to assist her clients, family and friends with the essence of TT® and its ability to weave through her life and her actions. Known as "Heart Lady" by those in her circle of influence, Tanya has transformed nature, art, intention and supportive techniques in a simple and profound way. Explore how her ideas may help enhance what you are able to offer those in your circle of influence.

or C2 The Challenges and Rewards of providing TT® in a Chemo Unit (Sandra Noah)

Join Sandra Noah from Yarmouth, NS, one of ATTN's original TTer's, as she shares her experiences on the cancer unit where her TT® group offers treatments. By sharing some of her most memorable case studies, she will explore the challenges, the hope and the promise that TT® can bring to the wellness care in the hospital and in the health care setting.

10:30 am Vision Mapping our Future (Michelle Greenwell)

Together we build a bridge between our TT® skills and our community. Join Michelle to reach deeply into our passion for TT® and for ATTN and create a new vision and map for its continued success. WE will match our skills and expertise with intention, grounding, vision, opening pathways, compassion and gratitude to create a biofield for our association that expresses self-care, community and vision. Get ready for an inspiring event.

12:00 pm LUNCH BREAK bring brown bag lunch

12:30 pm D1 Integrating TT® with Vibrational Tuning (Natascha Polomski)

Playing with frequency, the therapeutic Singing Bowls will provide a mechanism for listening to where changes have been made in the field, and understanding through its feedback how to assist the field further or when assistance is no longer needed. This experiential workshop will provide feedback for strengthening your TT® skills.

or D2 Understanding the concept of the Healing Field - TT® and TFH (Michelle Greenwell)

Muscle monitoring is a tool that provides the subconscious mind to provide feedback and support of what is happening to the body and the biofield. By using this technique in combination with TT® there is an increase in awareness of where assistance may be helpful, but also where it might not be intuitively recognized. This experiential workshop will enhance your TT® skills and open up the possibility for new and supportive insights.

01:30 pm What's Next? (Barbara Stone and Cherry Whitaker)

Learn from our wonderful faculty about the latest news in TT® and what is happening in our network.

01:45 pm Unity Circle

As we transition from a group of TT'ers learning together, we open up the circle to include the matrix of transformation for those that we will reach after this weekend together. This 15 minutes will bring us from the inside out, into a living matrix family.

02:00 pm Break

There will be a 50/50 draw
